It is true we have believed that cotton is king it is undeniable that we possessed a monopoly for its production, arising out of a variety of causes, but it is not true that it will grow nowhere else Indeed, we find that the production of it in various countries is increasing in a geometric ratio, and that in a year or so the South will no longer be needed to supply to the commerce of the globe what we vainly hoped would grow nowhere else.

Proclamation by the Governor. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 4, 1864 The frequent outrages perpetrated in various parts of the State by lawless bands of marauders, can in a large degree be traced to the active aid of rebel sympathizers in our midst, or their neglect to furnish to Military Commandants the information, in their session, which would lead to the defeat and capture of such maranders.

Sympathizers with the rebellion who, while enjoying protection from the Govern300 dozen at once to have it sold to Sutlers. ment, abuse the leniency extended to them by concealing the movements of rebel guerrilas, by giving them information, affording them shelter, supplying them with provisions, and otherwise encouraging and fomenting private raids, are in criminal complicity with all the outroons permetted by the all the outrages perpetrated by the maranders whom they secretly countenance.

It is in the power of persons whose sympathies are with the rebellion to prevent guerrilla raids, almost invariably, by furnishing to Military Officers of the United States or State of Kentucky, the information which experience has proved them to be, as a general thing, possessed of.
If all would unite, as is their duty, in putting down guerrillas, we should cease to be troubled with their raids. A neglect to afford all assistance and information which may aid in defeating the designs of marauding parties, can but be construed as a culpable and active assistance to our enemies

I, therefore, request that the various Military Commandants in the State of Kentucky will, in every instance where a loyal citzen is taken off by bands of guerrillas, immediately arrest at least five of the most prominent and active rebel sympathizers in the vicinity of such outrage for every loyal man taken by guerrillas.
